

Year 9 DC1 Music

Learning Focus	Emerging	Developing	Securing	Mastering	Beyond
Performing	I can perform music in a range of styles, making some contributions to an ensemble and using relevant notations. I can perform a solo part or supporting parts with some confidence.	I can perform music in a range of styles, making significant contributions to an ensemble and using relevant notations. I can perform a solo part or supporting part with increased confidence.	I can give reasonably secure performances with a generally assured level of conviction and projection. I can understand style specific musical expression.	I can give secure performances with a generally assured level of conviction and projection. I understand how to shape a melodic or rhythmic line during a performance.	I can give convincing performances and demonstrate empathy with other performers. I demonstrate a high level of responsiveness to other performers and show a good understanding of the nature of ensemble performing.

