Dear Parents/Carers

RE: Poetry Live- Bradford- St George's Hall

I am writing to inform you that we have a fantastic opportunity for your child to go on a trip to see Poetry Live as part of their GCSE English Literature course. This is a live and interactive event, whereby students can see some of the poets who they have studied from their anthology, performing their poems live on stage and engage in a question and answer session with them.

This is an exciting opportunity, but we have limited tickets. The cost of the trip is £31, which includes the ticket for the day and travel to and from the academy. The trip is decided on a first come, first served basis, along with behaviour, effort and engagement in their English lessons.

The payment can be done in 3 instalments, but we must receive a £10.00 deposit on ParentPay by Saturday 31st October, with all further payments completed by the end of December. Payments are non-refundable unless your child cannot attend due to us cancelling their place (for example due to behaviour), then you will be refunded.

Please see below for details:
